

DISCLOSURES

MICHELLE COLLINS

Waterfront sinks

A REPORT by Johnston Dixon Riverfront shows the number of riverfront homes sold in Brisbane dropped from 48 in 2007 to 29 last year — the lowest number since it started putting together the report in 1997.

The drop in sales, though, didn't lead to a drop in values on the river, with the average riverfront house price breaking the $3 million barrier for the first time.